of the Churches of Christ was in progress in the Seventh Street Christian Church yesterday, hearing reports, tabulating returns from various fields. and again going over the work of the The reports showed that the church's following had been recruited by thou-sands in membership, while the total receipts of the missionary society were more than $12,000. In the absence of W. F. Fox, the president, Rev. H. Pierce Atkins gressided. Much of the morning session was spent in listening to evangelists and secretaries of the various districts. Fourteen men reported 3,000 days of labor among people of Virginia from Tidewater to the mountains and from the Northern Neck to the Southwest. At 11 o'clook Rev. H. G. Fleming, is Charlottesville, made an address for better State organization and zeal in missions.

After luncheon two hours were spent in reminiscences of the old days. Six sections of the State were represented by as many speakers. Early conflict and friction of religious bodies were told of, and contrasts drawn between conditions then and now.

Reports showed that there are now 27,000 members of the association; that twelve new congregations had been twelve new congregations had been established, and that other big gains had been made during the lest year.

The night session was taken us with an address made by A. McLean of Cincinnati, whose speech was in honor of the 100th anniversary of the issuing of the famous statement of Alexander Campbell's, which resulted in the establishment of the ite, now known as the Church, or Church of the Church, or Church of the Disciples, Mr. McLean went into the history of Thomas and Alexander Campbell,

Thomas and Alexander Campoeil, and the manner in which affiliations with the Baptists were severed. There will be three sessions to-day— morning, afternoon and night—after which the meeting will be adjourned

ALLEGED SHORTAGE IN ACCOUNTS,

Employe of Newport News Bank Said to Be Shy $4,000.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., September 22.—According to information given out to-day by Cashier J. A. Williett and B. A. Ruffin, of the Empire State Security Company, Milton R. Neck, a former auditor of the First National Bank of this city, who left here suddenly two weeks ago, is short in his accounts. The exact amount of the shortage has not yet been determined, as the examination of the books is not complete. However, the officers say that it will not aggregate more than $4,000.

Nock was married in New York about a month ago, and was suspended from the bank a few days after his return, Cashier Willett having found evidence of a seemingly false entry on Nock's books. The suspension was pending the meeting of the directors, but Nock left town with his wife the same afternoon. They are now said to be in New Jersey. No warrant for his arrest has as yet been issued.
